Touristic attractions of Great Britain, Germany, Switzerland and Hungary

Apart from the very basic information about location, geography, climatic conditions and main cities, the lecture gives the list of touristic attractions. They are separated into different groups, like: geological, natural, religious, archeological, architectural and others. The touristic “musts” and highlined. The lecture gives answers for the following questions: where to go, what to see, what to recommend.